A special train passed through Calgary last Monday composed of two cars of raw silk, valued at $90,000.00 and $50,000.00 a car.

No. 1 of volume 4 of the Chronicle, which arrived on an exchange table yesterday. If the Chronicle continues the present to the initial number, it will rank among the very best in the field of news and information. Mr. G. W. G. is the proprietor. We understand the paper will be in the interests of the Conservative party.

The Roundup land lottery at Bonneted, South Dakota, has been another big fraud, in which 146 people, as usual, have been swindled. The land thrown open for settlement included only 200 quarter sections, yet it is safely said that 100,000 persons registered for land. Estimate the expense of such registration at $200,000, and you have the enormous expenditure of $20,000,000, or more than the whole of the land would be worth if every farm could be sold for $1,000.

The writer happened to live near this land, and will venture the assertion that few of those farmers will ever be worth that amount. Some of the new immigrants to Canada from there tell some curious stories regarding the disaster that prevailed during the registration period. Bonneted, a usually quiet little town, found its population grown within one week from a few hundreds to many thousands, and a flood of the usual peddlers came to the town to peddle their wares.

To meet a part of the increased expenses the officials licensed all kinds of games and skin games. A part of the House money was paid to policemen to watch the affairs, but these declined to keep order, and proceeded to shoot up the town. They did not propose to be deprived of the victims for which they had paid the privilege of looting. It is a mistake idea, only too prevalent, that people who have paid for the privilege of breaking the law will submit to its enforcement by the same officials who received their money for this privilege.

A Pleasing Recital.

Grace Bonner, educationist and impersonator, gave a concert in Reid's hall last night, under the auspices of the Church of England. Her impersonation of that well-known four-act drama "Kean's" was most realistic, and merited the approval with which it was received by the audience. In addition to Miss Bonner a miscellaneous program was given by local talent.

Married.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of the groom, near Bismark, last Tuesday, by Rev. V. Graber. The contracting parties were Fred Kuhnke and Miss Jessie Johnson, whose parents reside at Fort Saskatchewan.

Correspondence.

Mr. Williams.

More and Mrs. Walker for Strathmore to visit, to-day and take in the fair.

Y. H. Williams expects to commence work on his new lumber shop in a few days, and will then be prepared to do any kind of work and will buy all the best fuel for shipping.

Geo. Bonner, of the firm of Ford & Bonner, expects to take a trip to the B.C. Coast soon. He will look after plans for ship and cargo, also take correspondence, and will act as a free workman.

E. H. Mathias says he will have a grain warehouse ready for the fall crops by the first of the month.

W. H. Johnson and W. Tucker finished putting up their crops of brown grass hay Monday, and report it to be in the shape.

The government drover is working hard on the boys are pushing it for the best and making good progress.

A little south boy at Mathias's had last Friday was a success, and a good deal of money.

One of the blacksmiths took a day's rest last week.

W. H. Johnson has some fine pigs for sale.

It is a mistake about the merchants of the village complaining of the little station house that was abolished here. They are glad to get a place to store their goods and thank the C.P.R. for small favors that will permit a good station.

We are in need of a good shoe maker who can do repairs, will do well to locate here.

Job Printing.

We have a fine assortment of job printing, and will do all kinds of work.
